GREETINGS FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brothers,

In March we will be having our recruitment drive. We tried to schedule a pancake breakfast at each of the parishes but due to scheduling conflicts we were only able to get one scheduled for Immaculate Conception on Sunday, March 9th after the 7:30 and 10:00 masses. This is our opportunity to show everyone in that parish what the knights are about. Please volunteer to help out, and if you have a prospect for the knights try to get them to join.

This happens to fall on the same day that we will be ushering at the 11:00 mass for Christ the King. Because of this, we will need a great turnout from our brother knights. Please contact Matt Hutchinson at 479-883-0868 if you can help usher.

On Monday, March 10th we will be cooking dinner for the Collegiate Challenge work crew. This is a group of about 30 students from Boston University and Catholic University of America that will be in town working at two locations for the week. We have not decided on a menu yet. If you would like to help out give me a call.

We will be cooking catfish every Friday during lent. We have a wonderful kitchen crew in place but we still need lots of help with cleanup. Please volunteer to help cleanup after a fish night.

Bingo is still going strong. We raised over $11000 last year. We are advertising with some signs around town and we are already starting to see bigger crowds. Because of this we really need more volunteers. It is not hard work. It would be nice to work a couple of weeks and then have a month off. Right now we have two teams working two weeks on and then two weeks off. It would be great to have another five to six volunteers so we could spread out the work.

Congratulations to our Knights of the Month.

November 2013 - Henry Moore

December 2013 - Daniel Moore

January 2014 - Greg Pair.

We will be changing our meeting times throughout Lent. Meeting times for Lent will be 8:00pm.
